INTRODUCTION

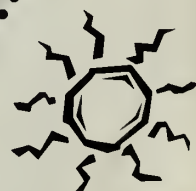

Destination

The 98 - 99 school year is a stepping stone to many of the changes that will be happening in the years to come. We must first say good-bye to two of the most compassionate and understanding people that have been a part of our everyday routine. Those two people that have touched our lives are the assistant principal, Mr. Paul and the foreign language teacher, Mr. Lamontagne. We all wish the best of luck to them in their years that lie ahead without SHS.

This year also marks the start of construction. Due to the growing population of students in the Sutton school system, there has been a need for larger school accommodations. The elementary school is having an extension put on that will connect the senior high school and the elementary school. The connection between the two schools is planned to be completed by the start of the '99-00 school year. Although, as we all know, Rome wasn't built in a day.

As it happens every year, the senior class will be walking out of the doors of Sutton High School for the last time. We have all been forced to look at what lies ahead and discover that our destinations are unknown. The class of '99 has looked back on the years that we have spent together and, although we have many fond memories, we are looking forward to the future.

Unknown

Kate Walsh and Heather Kamyck are awaiting Mr. Chomka's dismissal. Stacey Cobane, Lydia Keene-Kendrick, Kayla Convery, and Tory Petrie leave lunch to go to their next class. A group of Freshmen huddle in Mrs. Davidson's English class. Let's eat!! Lydia DuHamel, Erik Emery, Rachel Wenc, and Tom Campbell take love advice from Mr. Lamontagne. Leeann Morris, Nicole Eisnor, Heather Tyan, and Shelly Capistrone eagerly wait for Mrs. Piel to send them back to class. UGH, Brian!!!

This year's dedication goes to two members of the faculty that have for years supported and enthusiastically taught generations of Sutton students. We would like to recognize Mr. Robert Paul and Mr. Paul Lamontagne. We will all miss their quick wit and cheery smiles around the halls of Sutton High. We wish them both well in retirement.

FACULTY

Mr. Henrickson is busy at one of his many jobs at Sutton High School.

Mr. Lesse takes a break from photocopying his next period's test, for a quick picture.

Mr. Chomka finally gives us a real smile.

Mr. Lamontagne and two of his students, Morgan Healey and Jess Soboleski, display the great student-teacher relationship at Sutton High.

Mr. Rabinowitz looking as confused as ever.

Mrs. Boule and Mr. Henrickson are excited to go home from a long day at work.

But Mrs. Keegan....

Mrs. Leonard and Pam Johnson demonstrate the rules of the classroom.

Mrs. Davidson helps her students. Mr. Carty, in his golf attire, thumbs through one of many books in the library. Mr. Smith has little enthusiasm for a picture, unlike his students. Mrs. Heir is excited about her new markers. Mrs. Piel has a friendly smile in the hallway as she collects the attendance. Mr. Lamontagne, at his famous podium, discussing the latest social events. Ms. Smith and Jamie Anderson are making gak as Brian Roberts walks away. Mr. Rabinowitz is preparing for the next class lecture. Mrs. Mitchell smirks for the camera. Mrs. Petrie, as always, has a warm smile on her face. Ms. Chelotti shows a little pep for her class. It looks like Mrs. Anderson will be correcting papers for the next hour.

The background is a detailed topographic map of Sutton, New Hampshire. The map shows various geographical features including ponds (e.g., Ramshead Pond, Potter Hill Pond, Welch Pond, Putnam Pond, Schoolhouse Pond, Adams Pond, Arnold Pond, Farm Pond, Pigeon Hill Pond), hills (e.g., Potter Hill, Freeland Hill), and swamps (e.g., Cedar Swamp, Bond Hole Swamp). It also depicts roads, railroads, and several cemeteries (e.g., Sutton Center Cem., Woodbury Cem., Pigeon Hill Cem.). The word 'SUTTON' is printed in large, spaced-out letters across the center of the map. A black rectangular box with a white border is superimposed over the upper portion of the map, containing the text 'Exit 3 Seniors' in a white serif font.

Time seems to pass so quickly when you become use to something as comfortable as a friend. We may never have been the closest class that ever went through Sutton's glass hallway, but, we've all had our share of memories together. During the fall of our Senior year we stopped to look towards our future and began to realize how our destinations were still unknown. Through the course of our last year we began to see the changes that have occurred within the people that have been with us since 1st grade. You never stop to think about how meaningful each and every one of the people you see day by day actually are, until you realize your time is up. Well, now our classes have finally ended and our time is up at SHS, and we have to each choose our own paths and move on to our final destinations.

Kristin Hamm looks thrilled to be in the computer lab.

Andrew Duclos always seems to be involved in monkey business.

Heather Jacques smiles for the camera.

Eddie Gutierrez seems to be at loss for words.

Boys Varsity Soccer

The boys varsity soccer team was a very young team, considering their starting lineup had one eighth grader, one freshman, seven sophomores, one junior and one senior. The team improved tremendously throughout the season. The first half of the season they were 0-3-3. The second half of the season they were 2-2-2 and then finished with a record of 4-9-5. Under great leadership from their sophomore co-captains, Timothy Osterman and Rene Fuentes, they worked hard until the last game of the season. Mr. Ellis was an encouraging leader and great role model for the boys. They never gave up and always gave it their all until the final whistle blew.

Three members of the boys team were selected as All-Stars. Timothy Osterman and Rene Fuentes were selected as Dual Valley All-Stars, and Adam Royce and Timothy Osterman were selected as Central Mass All-Stars.

Boys Junior Varsity Soccer

With no high school students, the boys junior varsity team had to play bigger, stronger, and more experienced opponents. The boys still played well and were highly competitive. They were led by Coach Delongchamp and captains Dan Donahue, Tom Alger, and Alex Pertrie. Like the varsity boys, they improved throughout the season and ended with a record of 7-4-3.

Girls Varsity Soccer

The girls varsity soccer team had a lot of expectations this year. There is a lot of pressure when a team comes back as state champions, having lost only two seniors. They started the season strong. At the half way point of the season the girls already knew that they had made the districts. Their coach, Mr. Webber, got the girls in top condition. You could find the girls running and sprinting for two to two and a half hours for their practices. The girls' tri-captains were, seniors, Tara Vires, Kim DiLeo, and Ilona Nagy. The girls had a lot of talent this year. Their starting line up consisted of 3 seniors, 2 juniors, 4 sophomores, 1 freshman and 1 eighth grader. The girls played a game off passing and control, which seemed to work during the season. All the girls' practicing paid off when they won the Dual Valley Championship, but the season was abruptly ended in the first game of the districts where the girls lost a hard fought game. We look forward to another exciting season for the girls next year.

Members of the girls varsity soccer team were selected as All-Stars. There were eight girls for the Dual Valley All-Star team: Tara Vires, Ilona Nagy, Kim DiLeo, Nicole Eisnor, Pam Johnson, Alison Palermo, Rachel Wenc, and Anna Dufault. Dual Valley Player of The Year was Kim DiLeo. Three of the girls were selected as Central Mass All-Stars, they were: Kim DiLeo, Ilona Nagy, and Rachel Wenc.

Girls JV Soccer

The girls finished the season with a record of 9 wins, 4 losses and 3 ties. The team played very competitively throughout the season and handed Woodstock its only loss of the season and also beat Leicester on Homecoming. The team scored 42 goals and the defense only allowed 15. Many of the eighth graders will move up to varsity next year, but Coach Boule is looking forward to many new players next season. Amanda Minardi, Christine Army, and Sarah Winn were brought up to varsity for the districts. These girls got to experience how it is to play under the coaching of Mr. Webber.

Cross Country

For the fourth year in a row, the boys and girls Cross Country team has started the year with a new coach. Mr. Gillin brought years of running experience to the team.

The girls Cross Country team completed a fine season, with an impressive tenth place finish at the district meet, in Gardner. Twenty-six teams competed in the race. Sutton was led by Christina Page. She was followed by Laura Spring, Sam Andrews, Jenn Broman, Amanda Piel and Kate Walsh. One Hundred and Fifty runners competed. The Girls' season record was five wins and three losses. The girls team was lead by Christina Page, with a very impressive first season. She was selected to the DVC all-star team for her efforts during the Dual Valley meet.

The Boys' Cross Country Team finished a frustrating 21st at the district meet in Gardner. Illness plagued the team, with both Henry Anastation and Dan Sabourin missing the meet. Still, solid efforts were displayed by Joe Courville, Tim Raymond, Tom Nagy and Justin Clark. The boys' team record was 0-8, however, improvement is expected next season, given the returning letter winners.

Captains of this years girls' team were Jenn Broman, Kate Walsh, and Shannon Stone. The boys' captains were Tom Nagy, and Dan Sabourin.

Varsity Golf

The golf team traded the experience of spring mud for fall leaves as the Massachusetts Interscholastic Athletic Association endorsed fall golf for the first time. With a young team, the Sammie Swingers contended in the Dual Valley Conference with outside matches against higher division teams. Led by captain Tom Campbell and fellow classmate Andrew Duclos for part of the year, the team started fast. Rolling into October with a winning record, the team ran into stronger division 2 teams and lost their winning percentage. They ended the year at 3-5 and a second place finish in the Dual Valley Conference. With the loss of only two seniors, the team should continue to improve as the returning players gain more skill and experience.

"It turned out to be a very successful season for having such a young golf team. I was also able to play with my brother, Patrick."

Football

This year was the second year that Millbury and Sutton collaborated and formed a varsity football team. Although the games were played on the Millbury field, there were many Sutton fans that attended the game. Sutton players were Larry Morris (Running Back), Dan Oliver (Receiver), Paul Stone (Line-man), Mike Brown (Line-backer). "Although this year's record was not a winning one, many of the our players showed a great deal of pride and dignity. The season was difficult but very rewarding. We were in a lot of close games, and always fought hard until the end. I would like to thank all of the seniors for their commitment to Millbury-Sutton football over the years and wish them the best of luck," said Coach Palazzi. These four players and last years seniors were the first in what will hopefully be a long-lasting tradition in Sutton Athletics.

FOOTBALL

The 1998 Millbury-Sutton Football Team

The players worked extremely hard in their off-season conditioning program, and gave everything they had in the games. Although the results were not in proportion with the players' effort, these young men should never forget that hard work does pay off. Hold your heads up high.

Sutton members of the Millbury-Sutton football team
Dan Oliver #81, Paul Stone #68, Larry Morris #44, Mike Brown #64

In 1998, four students from Sutton played football for only the second year, in collaboration with the Millbury Wollies. Seniors Larry Morris (Running back), Dan Oliver (Receiver), Paul Stone (Lineman), and sophomore Mike Brown (Linebacker) all contributed greatly to a very difficult, yet rewarding season. These four players and last year's seniors were the first in what will hopefully be a long-lasting tradition in Sutton athletics.

This years' Cheerleading squad had a late start with a new coach and a new style. Jen Russel worked hard with the girls and, as a first year coach she accomplished a lot. This years' Cheerleaders were led by tri-captains Jocelyn Quillen, Kerri Kudla, and Amanda Guerin. Amanda gave the squad spirit and showed strong leadership. Kerri gave the girls spunk. Jocelyn's strength and dedication pulled the squad together.

There were three seniors on the squad: Amanda Steadman, Katie Montigny, and Heidi Page. Their hopes were to enjoy it and have a great time, especially Heidi who was our first mascot at Sutton. Heidi's everlasting enthusiasm was indescribable; she was the Suzie for the girls game and the Sammie for the boys game. However, we know that Heidi's most memorable time was when an opposing mascot challenged her to a battle.

CLUBS

Drama Club

The Drama Club, under the direction of Mary Campbell, has taken a large step towards a very rewarding future. This year, members of all ages performed in "Bye, Bye Birdie." The audience enjoyed the show, giving these hard-working individuals a much-deserved standing-ovation.

As for the future, the Drama club hopes to shine even more and put on many more spectacular plays. Lead by Annie Kerins and Ricky Magner, this diverse group of students are still young. Many opportunities lie ahead for any of these talented young individuals.

Melanie Guerin, the music director and coordinator of the Drama Club, gives orders to the students.

Amanda Bohanan and Caitlin Morris are always willing to flash their pearly-whites!

Annie wants to be included in the picture too!..... But don't Abby and Mike look so cute together?!

Nicole Prue likes showing everyone what a big mouth she has, while Heidi on the other hand, wants us to count her teeth. (1,2,3.....)

Krystin Bedard, in the background acts sultry as Caitlin flashes a big one.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Chorus

Over the course of a few years, the High School Chorus has experienced many changes. Not long ago the chorus consisted of 5 members. Now this group, a diverse group of 40 young men and women, has not only grown in size but in musical ability, technicality and performance artistry.

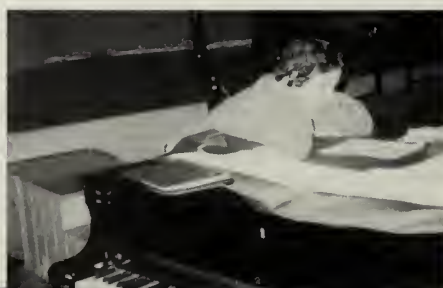

This year's musical selections featured such pieces as Les Miserables and Blue Skies as well as gospel, classical and pop vocal selections.

Two of this year's chorus members represented our school in the Central District Festival and received All-State Recommendations. Congratulations to Joey Sampson for participating in the Central District Festival and also to Reagan Karacius who was also accepted into the All State Festival Chorus.

As for the future.....The chorus hopes to continue to strive for musical excellence and aspires, to proudly represent the Sutton schools Music Department. This year has truly been a memorable, rewarding and fun experience. We look forward to many great years to come!

The High School Chorus Members are: Karl-James Bergeron, Melissa Berube, Tian Cedar, Kyle Donahue, Sarah Flagg, Jacob Given, Jessica Guerin, Heather Jacques, Reagan Karacius, Abby Kehres, Ann Kerins, Richard Wagner, Briana McNeil, Krystal Peterson, Kristina Raymond, Amanda Reid, Curtis Sadowski, Joey Sampson, Kristen Small, Rose Threadgould, Jennifer Webb, Taylor Wenzel, Staci Whitcraft, Julie Wilson, Briana Yacino, Jessica Bobb, Alyson Coll, Amy Dahlstrom, Renee Hadad, Heidi Page, Nicole Prue, Melinda Watts, Rachael Wenc, Anna Dufault, Jessica Rutkauskas, Eric Jones, Kelly Davis and Christina Fernandez.

High School Concert Band

Under the direction of Mark Smith, the Sutton Band program has achieved many accomplishments and grown to a superior level. Band Students may participate in a concert band, pep band and jazz band.

The High School Band is proud to announce that this year Sutton was represented by four members in the Senior Central District Festival. Congratulations to Erin Breen, Melanie Guerin, Emily Hallen and Kristina Raymond! Erin and Melanie were also awarded positions in the Massachusetts All-State Band.

Paul Stone shares a thumbs-up sign, signifying how cool he really thinks band is. Matt, on the other hand, has no comments and acts tough.

Members of the High School Band are: Jennifer Bordeaux, Renee Hadad, Kristen Small, Lauren Vigneault, Erin Breen, Melanie Guerin, Reagan Karacius, Richard Magner, Briana McNeil, Audra Morin, Caitlin Morris, Brian Babin, Eryk Jones, Ryan Levitre, Heidi Page, Jessica Stevens, Rachael Cole, James Farineau, Eric Gauvin, Clarissa Hallen, Lawrence Morris, Daniel Oliver, Kristina Raymond, Joey Sampson, Adam Cox, Anna Dufault, Emily Hallen, Jason Arsenault, Jacob Given, Paul Henrickson, Ryan Lachapelle, John Cofske, Tim Harrison, Matthew Mooskian, Brenna Morin, Sean Smith, Katie Stevens, Paul Stone and Jennifer Thompson.

"Detroit" gives his evil eye to a spectator, while Anna and Babin take a nap on their way to get their instruments.

Ricky is astonished with Anna's looks, while Jason looks the other way.

Joey Sampson and Kristina Raymond seem a little confused on how to play their instruments. (And how long have they been in band for?!)-Poor Mr. Smith!!!

Jazz Band

The Jazz Band of Sutton has played in many different venues, such as for the elderly of Sutton, at the new bandstand and at annual spaghetti suppers. The level of music is far higher than surrounding Jazz Bands, as the program continues to improve.

Below, Jason Arsenault gives us a sharp looking pose with his guitar. Meanwhile, Jake was caught off guard by the camera and appears to be eating something..... I wonder what though?

Mr. Smith watches over the jazz band. As you can tell, Reagan loves to get her picture taken, but Kristina and Audra seem to be a little cut off. It's okay girls, we still give you credit!

Heidi listens to Reagan complain about how hard the Jazz Band music really is.

Pep Band

At every home game, you can hear the energetic music of the Sutton Pep Band. The Sutton Pep Band is quite unique, being one of a few and certainly the best High School Pep Band around. Playing music from the 60's up to popular hits of today, they support the Sammies and Suzies of Sutton.

Members of the Pep Band are:

An aerial view of the Pep Band.

Kristina shares a wave with one of the Pep Band fans as they walk by.

Erin does her turtle face, while Jess smiles pretty for the camera. Melanie gives us the studious look, while Diane pretends to not notice the camera.

The future trumpet leaders of the Pep Band: Rachael, Adam and Ian. This year we say good-bye to Kristina and James. Good Luck next year!

Environmental Science Club

This year, more than any other, the Environmental Science Club has placed a strong focus on recycling. Each Thursday afternoon they meet to collect the cans, bottles and white paper that have accumulated over the week. Other projects they have engaged in include fundraising at Homecoming for the purchase of bins, water testing in nearby brooks, and encouraging the student body to become involved in this tedious but necessary work!

There are high hopes for the group's newest project, a gardening endeavor which will benefit the community at large! The students will be cultivating a small geranium crop for Memorial Day.

The club's high school membership has skyrocketed. Five-sixths of the group is now made up of high school students. A larger percentage of faculty is now encouraging recycling in their classrooms since the club has made bins available for classrooms. The group is led by Maureen Roberts and Lois Kolofsky. The Environmental Science Club urges you to recycle.

The senior high club members are: Clarissa Hallen, Emily Hallen, Erin Breen, Briana Yacino, Renee Patient, Staci Whitcraft, Jessica Bobb, Jennifer Bobb, Jen Webb and Krystal Peterson.

(on the right) Jessica seems to find something funny about getting her picture taken... or is she laughing at Briana?

Staci, however, is not so shy as Renee.

The Humanities Collaborative Scholars

The Humanities Scholars Collaborative is a program for academically talented juniors. It is a yearlong program which involves visiting local colleges in Worcester. It is a regional program involving Sutton, Grafton, Millbury, Worcester and other local school systems. Each year a new theme is introduced, to which the program is based upon.

This year's theme was, "Who Is An American?" The theme was looked at by the students in a number of various perspectives. Students did readings, attended lectures, participated in discussion groups, and put together a final, year-end presentation. Sutton students have done very well in this program and look forward to its continued success in the future.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is a group of students who have shown high ability and excellence in the area of knowledge, leadership, scholarship, service and most importantly, character. Students are chosen in their junior year on the basis of their grades and the other above mentioned qualities. The members are usually inducted in May. This year however, the induction ceremony has been moved up to April, with qualifying seniors notified after Christmas break, so as to place the information on college applications and to allow for the busy schedules of the members.

The members of the National Honor Society participate in charitable activities throughout the year. The Chain of Lights on December 5th, was one of these activities. Also the NHS has made several trips to deliver food to shelters in the city of Worcester. Along with these charitable acts, members have individually done their own community service, from teaching CCD classes at church to tutoring children after school.

The NHS ran the school's Spirit week, with such daily activities as pajama day, hat day, and twin/leprechaun day. Some old favorites were back for the Mini-Olympics, such as the sneaker scramble, tug-of-war and piggy back race. A new color tradition was set up as well, with seniors being white, juniors red, sophomores blue and freshman green. No more black for seniors!

Under the direction of Taura Dudley, the National Honor Society members are: Trip Henrickson, Jessica Stevens, Kristina Raymond, Amanda Bohanan, Ilona Nagy, Audra Morin, Jessica Sobaleski, Morgan Healey, Joey Sampson, Melissa Berube, Emily Hallen, Caitlin Morris, Erin Breen, Krystin Bedard, Eric Gauvin, Tom Campbell, Larry Morris and Melanie Guerin.

Tom, Larry and Eric seem a little astonished to be getting their pictures taken. (Had to use up the film! Just kidding guys.)

Mel's doing something most kids don't.... studying!

Student Council

Led by their advisor Mr. Henrickson, Trip Henrickson (president), Ili Nagy (vice-president), Ryan Brown (treasurer) and Hilary Washbourne (secretary), this year's student council has accomplished quite a bit. Throughout the year, they have sponsored several volleyball tournaments, two blood drives, Midnight Madness, Heart-to-Heart, the Alumni Basketball game and the Talent Show.

In addition to these events, earlier in the year, some student council members took on the task of organizing the school's trophy cases. It took a while, but now all of our school's awards are arranged in chronological order. As always, the student council has been hard at work with the school store. Though business was not always booming, the students stuck it out. (Way to go!)

ACADEMICS

Ryan Brown isn't falling into senior slide, not yet anyway.

Jenn Thompson, Clarissa Hallen and Katie Stevens prove that it is possible to accomplish projects in the hallway.

Shannon Stone, Pam Johnson, Heather Kamyck and Kelly Kneeland focus on chemistry.

Kerri Kudla looks up as Shawn Kerswell works hard as usual.

Kerrie Deasey is so into her work.

Amy Curtis and Tim Osterman give a sly look and a smirk.

Adam Tremblay dozin' off.

Jocelyn Quillen expresses herself.

Dan Oliver seems to be a little frustrated.

Kate McAuliffe and Michael Siepman

rush to get their work in on time.

Amanda Kangas getting to class.

Mr. Whittier explains to Melissa Lefebvre the homework she missed. Mike Niedzwiecki works diligently in the I.A. room. Christina Nardella wishes she had done something easier. Looks like someone is getting a facial. Passing a note in class, are we???

ACADEMICS

Jessica Stevens is mesmerized by Calculus. Morgan Healey looks alive and ready to learn, while Eric Gauvin takes a little snooze. Jennifer Hart is confused with the work she has just been assigned. Erin Hare, Molly Johnson, and Amanda Guerin are hard at work in History. Christy Harrison takes notes from the history book. Eric MacDonald and Aaron Walker take a break from doing class work.

HAMMOND CASTLE

Ms. Chelotti took the class of 1999 to Hammond Castle, this being the second class she has taken since her start at SHS. The class got a tour of the castle and experienced some Medieval traditions. This trip was a start to a year full of memories for the Seniors.

Shawn and Andy doze on the way up while, Kristin and Erin are ready for the ride. Tara always gives a helping hand. Melissa enjoying the view. Miss Chelotti always armed and dangerous. Kristina and Joey lovin' the sun. Joey was knighted. Chris bows to queen Nikki, while Sam the servant watches.

HOMECOMING

This was the third consecutive year for homecoming. The competitions between classes included the banner, the skit and the philanthropy competition. The freshman were the over-all winners of the competitions. That

Friday evening there was a Junior High and a Senior High dance, which many attended.

On Saturday, the festivities continued. The girls soccer team played a good game against Leicester with a tough loss.

Between the games the pep band tried to "pep" us up, and a fine job they did. The boys soccer team played against BMR. They tied the team 1 - 1.

As Mrs. Wassell has stated, "A great time was had by all."

Mike Gravison and Amanda Guerin show their school spirit in the Junior class skit. The Junior class plays dress up in their skit, lookin' tough Lisa B. and Jean M. Adam Royce and his date pose in front of the seniors banner at the homecoming dance. Jocelyn Quillen and Christina Nardella looking pretty buff. GO JUNIORS!!! Kristina Raymond looks ready to go bust a move.

Justin Lotsbom shows Dan Sabourin some brotherly love.
Leanne Masterson gives us a smile from lunch.
The faces of Art.
Chris Eldridge day dreaming.
The Junior brat pack.

The Physics class regroups to determine the number of minor injuries and fatalities that occurred while shooting arrows. Mr. Chomka claimed everyone survived...but has anyone seen Hilary lately?

Happy Halloween

For Halloween our first place winners were those crazy toga boys Larry Morris, Tom Campbell, Chris Owens, and Andy Duclos. Second place was Eric Orcutt from Mama's Family, third is Ryan Convrey as Hobo the clown and fourth place goes to Matthew Lisk as George Washington.

The freshmen class celebrates their Homecoming competition victory with a pizza party.

Stephanie Kirpatrick, Sara Sullivan, and Paula Hemingway look smashing after stuffing their faces. "Oh my god! The pizza has eaten Nate Anderson alive!"

Oh look, a group of boys eating pizza!

"Got any more?"

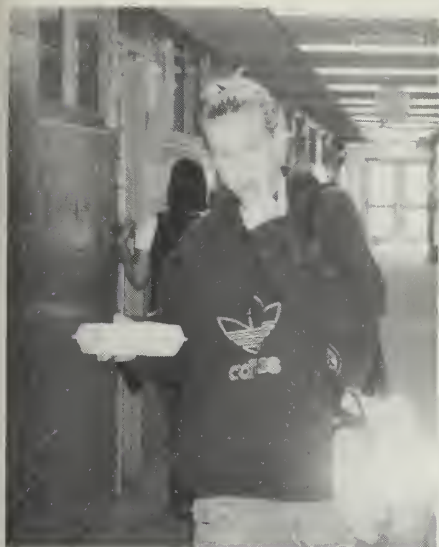

"MMMMMMMMMMMM good!"

"What's so funny?"

What's the matter Peter, are you shy?

Jenn Broman takes advantage of the new senior privilege. Brian Roberts and Chris Owens are a little closer than we thought. Audra Morin looking very happy to be in school today. Phil Griffith, what color is the hair going to be next week? Cheri Skog and Amy Millet display their friendship in government. Kristina Raymond schedules her weekly agenda. Jonathan Cox limps down the hall due to an unexplained injury. Reagan is practicing for her future job as a dishwasher. Michael Gonynor and Kate McAuliffe chow down as usual. Trip and Jess show their class enthusiasm by working at the homecoming dance.

TALENT SHOW

This year's talent show was amusing as well as entertaining. It was held on December 23 and, despite a few technical difficulties, was a great success. The acts included: Revolving Radio Users performed with Keith Anyon and Joe Settlerland; Masta C, Poolman, and White Chocolate Moose "brought the funk"; Reagan Karacius, Abbey Kehres, and Annie Kerins sang Jewel's "Angel Standing By"; Amanda Guerin sang "Angel" by Sarah McLachlan; Catie Romasco and Kaitlin Cotter choreographed an original dance; Alison Coll sang "Someone Like You"; Christina Nardella, Jessica Rutkauskas, and Erin Morris danced to a medley of songs; and Trip Henrickson lip-synched "Baby Got Back", backed up by members of the junior and senior classes.

Ryan and Trip stall for time. Trip likes big butts. Chris shakes his rump. Jason plays guitar. Lauren sings and dances in her pj's. Ryan's not "Blind". "Masta C" (Chris) brings the funk with Poolman (Paul).

Jake, John, and Jason. Kristin is possessed. Mike makes a great Otho. Nicole sings her heart out. Kristina belts out some country tunes. Kim and the girls having fun. Angela and Sam, Day-Oh.

Senior girls give us advice on how to land a man. Melanie concentrates on her sheet music. Eryk and Keith perform "Faith". Abby performs a Christmas melody.

Nicole Prue, Lydia Keene-Kendrick, Tory Petrie and Stacey Cobane smoosh together for this ravishing group picture.

Kristina Raymond looking beautiful while she takes a break from her studies. Melissa Mooskian tries desperately to get a hold of her mother to so she escape from T's last block accounting class!

Hilary Washbourne is caught not paying attention in H's class (as usual)! Angela Carrier and Erin Brennan spread their love throughout the library.

Nicole Webb smiles beautifully as she finishes her water color painting.

Jamie Bettencourt gives her friends Kelly Kneeland and Heather Kamyck bunny ears.

Mike Carra is caught leaving the premises.

Briana McNeil, dressed as the angel she actually is.

Amanda Steadman, Tara Moore and Niki Trychon pig pile on Katie Montigny.

Stacey Cobane and Kayla Convery relax in Mr. Bjorn's class.

Mini Olympics

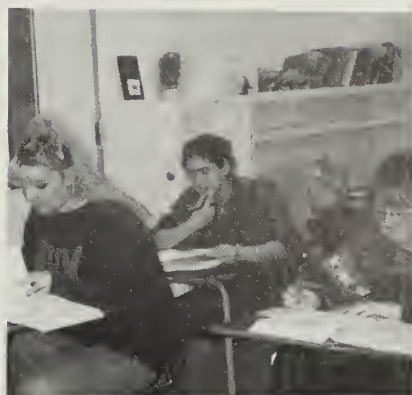

The sneaker scramble pile up looks a bit violent. The freshman girls support their team. Mr. Paul receives a plaque in his honor. The senior boys just couldn't pull it off in tug-a-war. The senior class looks perplexed.

Mini-olympics is the traditional untamed "Fun Friday" of spirit week. Each year the students' graffitied bodies and homemade team tees are outstandingly creative. The unpracticed events are very amusing to the onlooking crowd.

Although this was a day of stomach hurting, screaming fun, it was also a very sad day when it came time to say good-bye to our favorite Mr. Paul, who was retiring. The entire student body and staff did an awesome job with a standing ovation showing him how much his work and dedication was appreciated.

Sugarplum Katie Langert and tinkerbell Jenny B share a moment.
Tommy Nagy shines his big blue eyes.
Ryan Brown
at his drooling best.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The class of 1999 would like to acknowledge Mr. Henrickson for pulling us through four years of high school, and giving us non-stop support and dedication. "H" has a great sense of humor, is understanding and is always willing to take time out of his day to help you out. He is not only our class advisor but is also a teacher, athletic director, active raquetball coach, student council advisor, a fill-in principal and a father. The class of 1999 would like to give our warmest thanks to the man with a great heart.
Thanks "H".

The class of 1999 would like to acknowledge the compassion, understanding and acceptance of Miss Chelotti. She has been a teacher that, from the first time you walk through the door, gives you support in achieving your goals. She understands that your senior year is tough and she is willing to do whatever she can to pull you through. Miss Chelotti may be one of the first teachers to realize that we may be the class of 1999, but we are still all individuals.

An acknowledgment that we could not pass by, was that of Mr. Chomka. He is the reason that we were able to create this yearbook. Without his time and dedication to our yearbook staff, we would never have been able to put our memories into one brief publication. The class of '99 would like to tell Mr. Chomka (Chomps, Chomkarino, "Dad", Chem dog, Fast Eddie and Guy smiley) that he is a great teacher with a wonderful sense of humor and thanks for everything throughout the years.

CLOSING TIME

"Every new beginning comes from some other beginning's end"

CLASS OF 1999

Throughout our many diversities, there comes a time when we must unite as one... to make the completion, to end in success!

*Our destiny reflects the dreams that linger
throughout our souls,
the ones that we thrive on ...
the ones that last forever!*

This road that we know so well has lead us to choose a new path, a path that shall bring us to our final destinations.

1999 Drug Awareness Program

This year Mrs. Zimmage, Mrs. Rezuze, Mr. Tousignant and Mr. Gillin spent countless hours putting together an informational program about the consequences of drugs and alcohol.

Participating this year were: Mr. Louis Aloise, Ms Amy Valletta, Mr. James J. Gribouski, Mr. Richard Rafferty, Mr. Philip Soloperto, Ms Kelly Graham, Mr. Frank McKeirnan, Mr. Steven Valletta, Mr. Doug Counts, Ms Jessica Howard, Mr. Leo Perrault, Ms Mary Lorion, Mr. Tim Whalen and Dr. Jefferson Breen.

(To the far right) Justin Lotsbom reads a poem, while below, Jared gets a lesson from Officer Whalen. Mr. Rafferty speaks to the students. (Bottom far left) Teachers participating meet with volunteers. Dr. Jefferson addresses everyone, while seniors receive a breakfast.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

Arriving to the school for 5 in the morning is not always the easiest thing. However, if you are like any other senior, you look forward to the time off, especially in the enchanted world of Disney. Our plane touched down on time in Orlando, Florida at 10:15. The first site on the agenda was Disney's Animal Kingdom with the new 3d feature rides. After a fun filled, but cold day, we all headed to Epcot. At night we were treated to a spectacular laser light show and fireworks.

On Saturday we went to Universal Studios, where students could choose to ride the thriller rollercoasters, in Universal's new theme park, Island of Adventure. Admission to the new park was not included in our tour, so some chose to pay, while others enjoyed the motion rides at the "old Universal."

After almost a full day at Universal, we departed to Disney's All-Star Resort to get ready for Grad Night. Hours later, we were boarding the bus, for Pleasure Island, where the "Blast Off Party" was held. After about 2 hours, we were on our way to "Disney's Grad Night", which was held at The Magic Kingdom. Britney Spears, Reel Big Fish and Sister Hazel were among the performers. After staying up for over 24 hours, we arrived back at the hotel at about 6 am.

Sunday and Monday were free days, where students could lie at the pool, do some shopping at Downtown Disney and/or ride the Tower of Terror or other rides. It seemed that our trip was coming to an end on Tuesday as we packed our bags and said good-bye to the hotel. We then proceeded to Watermania Water Park, where the majority of us were burned. After a day in the sun, we departed for the airport, where some students saw Ben Savage from "Boy Meets World". At about 8:15 PM, our plane left sunny to Florida to return to New England weather.... rain! To end our trip, Mr. Klaiman met us at the airport to remind us to be in school in about 5 hours, by the time we got home! Needless to say, it was a trip that will never be forgotten.

(Top far left) Chris, Tom and Larry catch some zzz's, while Mr. Whittier is busy trying to pick up a penny. (Middle left) "K" and Mel share a cute smile for the friendly camera. Chris and Andy show us what they really thought of the bus driver. Paul, Dan Larry and Andy spend time with their hairy friend while above some of the group seems to have met the real hairy friend. (Far left) This is how crowded the Blast Off Party really was.

JR-SR PROM

May 28, 1999
Holiday Inn, Boxborough MA

Semi-formal

Laura, Becky and Jen stop dancing for a picture.

Tom seems to be very happy with his date.

Trip and Anna, the cute Hawaiian couple.

GRADUATION

In Loving Memory...

"There isn't a day that goes by that I don't wish that I could be back at school laughing and joking with all of you. We have many special memories. If it is true that life's most valuable treasures are the friendships made along the way, then I consider myself one of the richest people in the world."

On May 12, 1999, the Sutton School Community received the sad news that our cafeteria director Mary Connolly had died. Mrs. Connolly had been employed by the Sutton Public Schools for 26 years, serving as cafeteria director for the majority of those years.

Mary's children and grandchildren attended the Sutton Public Schools; perhaps this explains her dedication to the children of our school system. Mary treated all the students as if they were her own grandchildren, for that matter she treated the staff as if they were her own children or siblings.

She was always volunteering her time to help with fund raising efforts. Whether it was for a spaghetti supper or preparing lunches for the annual craft fair or for any other fund raising effort which required cooking, she was there. Mrs. Connolly will be remembered for her tremendous wit, the twinkle in her eyes, her positive attitude and her incredible spirit.

She provided so much more than just nutrition to the students of Sutton. She nurtured not only our bodies, but more importantly our souls. She will be missed greatly, for we must say goodbye.

Rest now Mary, you were our treasure and you will never be forgotten.
